LYNTRICIA

“ I was getting into trouble at school and eventually stopped going altogether, missing over a month of 10th grade. When I heard about Pace, I was skeptical, but after going for a few weeks I knew that it was the place for me. The staff all believed in me, and the small classes helped me focus. In May 2023, I became the first person in my family to graduate high school and am a proud role model for my younger siblings. The staff at Pace have a positive impact on me and continue to encourage me. Without Pace, I am not sure where I would be.
